

ECO-ACTION FOR January 29, 2021 – DELVING DEEPER:

Express your creativity

Express your feelings about our wonderful, threatened world, any species within it, or our place in its story in a haiku (lines using a pattern of 5, 7, 5 syllables). Lines need not rhyme.

SAMPLES:

The big blue marble (5)
Floats alone in empty space. (7)
How will it survive? (5)

Will the little one (5)
See the beauty of the Earth? (7)
Can we preserve it? (5)

1. WRITE LINE 3: (5 syllables):

Earth, I am grateful.
Your story is also mine!
>

2. WRITE AN ENTIRE HAIKU

If you wish, send your name and your response to 1 and/or 2 to kdullea@shcj.org. Indicate if you would NOT like your haiku(s) published later in Newsnotes.
