

The Evolution of My Understanding of Incarnation, 1950s → 2020s by Christine Wolff

RE-SOURCE #1 — February 2 – May 27, 2023

Chris Wolff. I am a lifelong Chicagoan, born in the 1950s. My twelve years of Catholic education were followed by the excitement and upheaval of social movements of the 70s, motherhood, higher ed, grandmotherhood. Most recently I've retired from the School of Environmental Sustainability at Loyola University Chicago. I continue to work with them on Healing Earth, a free, online environmental science textbook that integrates ethics and spirituality, <https://healingearth.ijep.net/>.

I met Terri MacKenzie, SHCJ about 40 years ago. Her understanding of the connections of God and creation was eye-opening and comforting and allowed me to explore my understandings and beliefs in entirely new ways. I am thankful our paths crossed!

The evolution of my understanding of incarnation, 1950s → 2020s

